this volume is a tribute to the life and work of hazel rowley internationally acclaimed biographer who died unexpectedly in march 2011 her passions were many and varied biography politics questions of race and sexuality the ways in which couples negotiate the dilemmas posed by the need to retain their individuality while building a life as a couple the deleterious effects of imposing a corporate mentality on universities all these and more were subjects of intense interest to her this collection combines essays responding to many of those interests with creative writing to honour the complexity and variety of her own magnificent contribution hazel rowley whose life and work are honoured in this collection was the author of many articles and essays and four outstanding biographies christina stead a biography richard wright the life and times tête à tête simone de beauvoir and jean paul sartre and franklin and eleanor an extraordinary marriage the oxford handbook of roman law and society surveys the landscape of contemporary research and charts principal directions of future inquiry more than a history of doctrine or an account of jurisprudence the handbook brings to bear upon roman legal study the full range of intellectual resources of contemporary legal history from comparison to popular constitutionalism from international private law to law and society thereby setting itself apart from other volumes as a unique contribution to scholarship on its subject the handbook brings the study of roman law into closer alignment and dialogue with historical sociological and anthropological research into law in other periods it will therefore be of value not only to ancient historians and legal historians already focused on the ancient world but to historians of all periods interested in law and its complex and multifaceted relationship to society scores of birthplace monuments and historic childhood homes dot the american landscape these special places many dating to the early years of the last century have enshrined nativity alongside patriotism and valor among the key pillars of the nation s popular historical imagination the essays in this volume suggest that the way americans have celebrated famous births reflects evolving expectations of citizenship as well as a willingness to edit the past when those hopes go unfulfilled the contributors also demonstrate that the reinvention of origin myths at birthplace monuments still factors in american political culture and the search for meaning in an ever shifting global order beyond asking why it is that americans care about birthplaces and how they choose which ones to commemorate born in the u s a offers insights from historians curators interpretive specialists and others whose experience speaks directly to the challenges of managing historical sites each essay points to new ways of telling old stories at these mainstays of american memory the case of the modern house museum receives special attention in a provocative concluding essay by patricia west in addition to west and the editor contributors include
